IMPERIAL WOMEN’S NETWORK

ABOUT THE IMPERIAL WOMEN’S NETWORK

The Imperial Women’s Network welcomes alumni from Imperial College London, and friends interested in advancing women’s leadership in business. Our supportive community represents an exclusive network with access to a unique mix of corporate leaders. The Network aims to provide a space for peer-to-peer professional and personal networking and support for female alumni, and male ‘advocates of diversity’ who have studied at the College.

Vision

Smart Society......Inspiring diversity for intelligent business.

The Imperial Women’s Network aims to provide a platform to promote success across generations. The network leverages and celebrates our community’s achievements to inspire and support professional ambitions to see more Imperial women in leadership.

Mission

Leveraging the global alumni community of Imperial College London, we embrace diversity by encouraging our community to recognise and proactively celebrate personal achievements and discuss challenges they face in their professional lives. We bridge gaps amongst professional networks to promote knowledge exchange and incubate collaborative opportunities to support professional and personal growth.

Strategy

We aim to achieve our vision and mission by connecting and bridging different professional networks, and promoting the exchange of inspirational ideas, information, know-hows, resources and insights across industries - by delivering:

- Personal development seminars spanning a number of themes related to the professional arena.
- Peer-to-peer networking socials to develop strategic alliances locally and internationally.

ABOUT OUR NETWORK

Imperial College London alumni working across industries and at different levels of their career.
